

Infection control

Course Aims

This course will benefit those working directly with patients/clients in health and social care environment. It will help care workers recognise the causes of infection and help them to assess the risks that their actions have on the health of their patients/clients whether that is in residential care or in their own homes in the private or public care sectors.

Course Content

On successful completion of the training programme and assessment will enable candidate to understand:

- Legislation relevant to Infection Control.
- The cause and spread of Infection.
- The terminology used in good hygiene practice
- How to prevent and control the spread of infection.
- Their roles, responsibilities and boundaries.
- Bacteria and Infectious Diseases including:
 - MRSA Methicillin Resistant Staphylococcus aureus
 - Clostridium difficile
 - Norovirus

Course Duration

This course is run over a period of 3 hours - times to suit your requirements.

Number of Delegates

Maximum 12

Cost On application